

PROFILES OF CANADIAN EXPERTS - FACILITATORS OF THE COURSE ON STATE SUPPORT TO REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT, KYIV 4-5 JULY, 2007

BARRY LAKE

Barry is Senior Program Advisor in Western Economic Diversification (WD) Headquarters in Edmonton with responsibility for the Community Futures Program.

Barry has over 20 years experience in program and policy development and delivery with the Government of Canada, as well as 12 years with the Province of Alberta Treasury Branches. He has a Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of Calgary.

Barry has served in various capacities within WD including Regional Manager of Entrepreneurship, Partnership and Program Services, Regional Manager for the Community Futures program and the Senior Advisor in the Client Service Branch, all in the Alberta region.

Barry brings a unique combination of practical experience, gained through the facilitation of the establishment of a number of community-based economic development organizations, together with program development and design experience.

In 2004, on behalf of the four Regional Development Agencies, he wrote the cabinet submission that renewed the Community Futures program for an additional five years.
